RARE JEWISH BIBLE STOLEN

Daring Thief Entered a Kansas City Synagogue and Took Away the Scroll.

The police department is seldom without some kind of mystery. The latest mystery is the identity of the thief who stole the scroll from the Anshe Ameth Jewish synagogue at 1004 Independence avenue, the Kansas City Star says.

The synagogue was broken into in the night, but only the scroll was disturbed. From all appearances the robber walked straight down the aisle to the rear of the altar, where he removed the scroll from the case in which it was kept.

The scroll is one of the most precious possessions of a Jewish congregation. On it, in Hebrew, are written all the books of the Old Testament. The Torah, as it is called in Hebrew, is kept in its case, and only the rabbi is allowed to see or touch it. The scroll that was taken is 24 inches wide and 150 feet long when unrolled. It is made of parchment and wound on a silver wand with gold knobs. Jake Wiseman, who reported the robbery to the police, said it was 400 years old, having been handed down from generation to generation.

Wiseman was unable to throw any light on the robbery, saying it could be of no use to anyone unless it was taken to sell to another Jewish congregation.

Mary had a 'lectric car That never tried to flunk. One day it gave the curb a jar— And now it's mostly junk.

ON THE MAP.

"Jiggersville has a great future," said the proud citizen.

"What makes you think so?" asked the government sleuth.

"The town is only about twenty years old, but in that comparatively short time it has turned out a famous baseball pitcher and a forger with a national reputation."

THE HUMAN RACE.

Daughter—Why is it a candidate is always referred to as "running for office?"

Father—Because there's usually a doubt about his getting it in a walk.—Judge.

THEY WORK TOGETHER.

"Papa, what is black magic?"

"That is what causes our chickens to disappear."

"I thought you said the other day that was caused by the work of the black hand."

WELL QUALIFIED.

Biggs—Young Sapleigh is trying to get into the social smart set?

Diggs—Well, he will probably succeed. He isn't very smart, you know.

UNREAL.

"Why don't audiences like to see husband and wife making love on the stage?"

"It doesn't seem natural."

NO TONY DISEASE FOR HIM.

"So the doctor said you were as sound as a dollar?"

"Yes; I had previously told him that was all I had."

ALSO AN EXCELLENT ONE.

"Why can't you give us a large contribution to this object?"

"Because I'm not rich enough."

"That's a poor excuse."

EQUAL TROUBLES.

"Here I have an electric runabout on my hands."

"And I have a bad runaround on my finger."
